Reviews

Friday night roared to life when the band took the stage.

Anchorage Daily News

Son himself is a master trailblazer in some of the dirtiest, skankiest, holiest hot rod of a lap-steel guitar anyone has a right to hear.

About us:

We're an Electric-Americana band based in Rochester, NY. We play energetic and danceable country, blues, soul and classic rock. There are 3 of us: Karl 'Son' Henry Mann (Guitar, lap steel and vocals), Jim Lampert (Fender and Acoustic bass, vocals) and Marty York (Drums and vocals)

Where in town are we playing?

Lots of places like: The Cottage Hotel, Mendon; The Landing Bar and Grille, Fairport; Smoking Hot Chicks, Fairport; Abandon Brewing Company, Penn Yan.

Something cool?

Karl is the only American to have won two British Blues Awards, and he did this as instrumentalist of the year in 2010 and 2011.

We've Opened For:

Peter Green, Bo Diddley, Little Texas, Fabulous Thunderbirds, Buddy Miles, Eric Bibb, and many others.

Festivals:

Headlined at Orkney Blues Festival (UK), Gaastroblues (Hungary), Augustibluus (Estonia) and Burnley Mechanics (UK), Blues on the Green (US) and the Ft. Worth Blues Festival (US), Talkeetna Bluegrass (US), AugustFest (US), Shetland Blues (UK), Nottingham Blues Festival (UK)
